News Release

THE MAYOR VISITS RADIO REDHILL

The Mayor of Reigate and Banstead, Councillor Mrs Marian Brewster was a distinguished guest during Radio Redhill's special programmes on 87.7FM to celebrate its 30th Birthday.

Mrs. Brewster visited the radio station serving the East Surrey Hospital and told listeners in hospital and around the local area about her 11 months as the Borough's Mayor.

She spoke of her Scottish origins, her support for local charities whilst Mayor, her appreciation of the role of volunteers in the local community – and her interest in Essex County Cricket Club.

She recalled many memorable moments during her term in office. These included representing the Borough at the Remembrance Day service and then, the day after, when she, along with the other Surrey mayors and the Lord Lieutenant of Surrey, welcomed the Princess of Wales Royal Regiment on their return from Iraq.
